

Steve Owens Joins HomeTown Bank

Steve Owens

Senior Vice President, Loan Officer and Bay Area Branch Manager

Please help us welcome Steve Owens, who has been named Senior Vice President, Loan Officer and Branch Manager at our Friendswood Bay Area office.

Steve is a veteran of over 33 years in banking in the Harris/Galveston County region. He began as a part-time teller while still a student at Dickinson High School, and went on to graduate from Texas A&M University, and has worked in the banking field in Dickinson, Houston, League City, Webster, Pasadena and Clear Lake.

"I feel honored to be at HomeTown Bank," he said. "It's a real team atmosphere! Everyone is extremely nice and helpful. From the Tellers to the Directors, all have welcomed me with open arms. I enjoy being at the Friendswood Bay Area Branch, where the staff does an excellent job making customers feel at home, and I truly enjoy the Friendswood area."

"We're fortunate to have Steve on our team," said Jimmy Rasmussen, HomeTown Bank President and CEO. "He has a wealth of experience in banking and the community we serve, combined with the dedication to customer service that is such an important part of the HomeTown spirit."
